- Organizational Leadership and Responsibilities

Please remind your student organization leaders to register today!

Student Organization Space Allocations

Student Organizations were granted an opportunity to request space that included, but was not limited to a student organization locker, private office, shared office, and a mailbox within the Reitz Union. The deadline was January 31st. Space allocations will be determined in the coming weeks. If your student organization requested space, please encourage them to check their email frequently for information on next steps.
